ASKS $10,000 FOR HUSBAND'S DEATH

Mrs. Anna Glaska, Widow of Michael Glaska, Files Suit in Indianapolis Court.

RECALLS THE FATAL ACCIDENT

Alleged That Company Was Negligent in Running Engine Too Fast—Had no Watchmen.

Mrs. Anna Glaska of North Sexton street, widow of Michael Glaska, who was killed at the union station in Indianapolis on the night of June 24, last summer, when he was hit by a Pennsylvania Railway company switch engine has filed suit for ten thousand dollars damages in an Indianapolis court. The Indianapolis Union railway is made a defendant with the Pennsylvania in the suit. Mrs. Glaska filed the suit as administratrix of her deceased husband's estate.

It is alleged in the complaint that Glaska had purchased a ticket on that night to return to his home here and had started to cross the tracks in the union station to reach a C., H. & D. train, when he was struck by a Pennsylvania engine. Mrs. Glaska declares that the company was negligent in running the engine at a speed of ten or fifteen miles an hour through the station. The complaint alleges negligence in the failure to place watchmen to warn passengers of the approach of trains.

The harrowing details of that accident, which is the basis for the ten thousand dollar suit will be well remembered by practically every resident of Rushville. Mr. Glaska had been to Shelbyville to make arrangements to move there and start a cigar factory. Practically all of the arrangements had been made and the family expected to move to the new city, engage in business and prosper. But all of their well laid plans were knocked skyward when the head of the family was hit and almost instantly killed. He died while being taken to an Indianapolis hospital.

As is shown in the complaint, Mrs. Glaska was left a widow and the only means of support for a large family of eight children. Since the accident, Frank Glaska, the second son of Mrs. Glaska, who had contemplated the cigar business with his father in Shelbyville, has opened a cigar manufacturing establishment here and has been doing a thriving business.

XMAS FUND WILL OPEN THURSDAY

First Subscription to Give Poor Children of Rushville Happy Christmas Will be Received.

WAS HUGE SUCCESS LAST YEAR

Names of Contributors Will be Published Saturday and Every Day After That.

The Daily Republican Santa Claus fund will be opened tomorrow, when the first contributions will be received. Already many donors of last year have notified the Daily Republican that they will subscribe as large if not larger amounts this year for the good of the cause as they believe it a worthy one. The funds will all be spent to buy Christmas presents for the little children of Rushville, whose Christmas eve would otherwise be cheerless.

The first snow of the season came today and it at least should be sufficient to arouse the true Christmas spirit enough to cause a donation for the good of the little folks of Rushville who are in poverty and who must struggle to get the bare necessities of life. There are many more than the average person with a good warm fire and plenty to eat ever dreamer of. There are plenty who need the assistance of their more fortunate friends in order to have a happy Xmas day.

Every cent of the money which is donated to the Daily Republican Santa Claus fund is turned back into local channels. All of the sums contributed are spent with Rushville merchants so that the money will be kept in circulation.

Small gifts as well as large ones are urged. Last year, which was the first attempt of the sort which any newspaper ever made in Rushville, children all over the city and county responded with small sums of money, all of which helped to make the total larger. The gifts of the fortunate little folks, who have always enjoyed a good Christmas made up the bulk of the large sum of $152.32.

Tomorrow the first contributions will be received and Saturday the first contributors, all of those who have sent sums up until that time, will be published. If any person or persons desire that their name be withheld, that will be done, or there is no need of signing a name to a subscription.

Don't forget that tomorrow will the first opportunity for boosting the fund and making it bigger than the one last year.

THE WEATHER

Fair and continued cold tonight and Thursday.

ST. PAUL IS NOW PEACEFUL TOWN

Wanderlust Spirit Has Subsided in Little County-Line Hamlet and All's Well.

THREE RUNAWAYS RETURN

Dr. John Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Mace Bush Are at Home Again.

St. Paul should follow in the footsteps of Shelbyville and demand a recount. No less than three of its distinguished citizens who were imbued with the wanderlust a few months ago have all returned to the little county-line town and are all enjoying the peace and tranquility which comes only to the prodigal after the fatted calf has been killed.

Dr. John Bell, a prominent physician and president of the Bell Smokeless Powder company, was the one to start the exodus when he made a rather spectacular get-away. He was followed in quick succession by Walter Adams, the baker—the candlestick maker remaining—and Mace Bush, the proprietor of a drink emporium. His wife followed in his wake, but she came back yesterday when her husband came after her and now all is well. Dr. John Bell has returned for the simple life, but Walter Adams, who took to the "tall and untutored" on a motorcycle, has never returned.

St. Paul received a rude awakening one balmy morning several months ago when the report became current that Dr. John Bell had strangely and mysteriously disappeared. Circumstantial evidence caused the residents of the town to believe that he had done what many others have done—left their favorite haunts never to return. But reports were received by his friends there several days later which conveyed the information that he was alive and well and that he had opened an office and engaged in the practice of his profession in Toronto, Canada. The next and final chapter was written a few days ago when Dr. Bell, accompanied by his wife, suddenly put in an appearance at St. Paul.

Shortly after Dr. Bell disappeared, others followed in rapid succession. Each was credited with having said that he intended never to return. Walter Adams, who operated the bakery, is the only one of the runaways who has carried his intentions into effect. But St. Paul citizens are not worrying a great deal about his failure to return, as John Ruckman of near Cicero, has purchased the bakery and his absence does not affect the census returns.

Mace Bush, who left on account of domestic troubles, returned several weeks ago. Bush was accompanied as far as Indianapolis by his wife and it was there that he abandoned her. But the unexpected happened. Yesterday Mrs. Bush put in an appearance at St. Paul and a reconciliation between her and Mr. Bush was effected. Mrs. Bush had said before leaving the town that she was going away never to return and it is not known what caused her to experience a change of mind.

It is said that kerosene or illuminating oil is rapidly becoming a mere by-product; the profits are made on the gasoline and the fuel oils. Both these find an ever and rapidly enlarging market; fuel oil especially will have an enormous field of employment in the railways, the navies and the mercantile fleets of the world.

WINTER HAS COME AT LAST

Thermometer Showed Eighteen Degrees Above Zero This Morning.

This was the coldest day that has visited Rushville this season. Early this morning the thermometer registered eighteen degrees above zero. It continued cold throughout the day and the wind was very disagreeable. Colder weather is promised and it looks as though winter was here at last. A regular blizzard was in vogue most of the day.

WILL REVIVE OLD POWDER COMPANY

Smokeless Concern, Which Threatened to go up in Smoke is Alive Once More.

SAID STOCK IS BEING SOLD

Since the return of Dr. Bell to St. Paul life has again been put in the Powder company bearing the doctor's name and if present prospects be fulfilled it will not be long until the hopes of the investors will be realized, says the Shelbyville Republican. By the sudden departure of Dr. Bell a cloud was thrown over the proposition and the majority of owners of stock considered the matter as down and out. But with the doctor's return comes the information that new stock is being sold and all arrangements being made to carry out the original plan which was to locate the plant at this place. This being true the owners will have reason to rejoice as the proposition is a good one and only needs the efforts of her owners to make it a success and money maker.

REPUBLICAN HAS A NEAR RECORD

Goes Into Practically Every Home in Rushville, as Shown by Figures And City Population.

MEANS MUCH TO ADVERTISERS

Memphis Paper Starts Figuring For Record and News and Columbus Republican Continues it.

After investigation, the Memphis Commercial Appeal compiled a few figures, found that their paper was read by every seven persons in the city where the paper is published and then claimed the record for circulation in the United States according to the size of the territory covered. The Indianapolis News came right back and went them one better. By figuring, they showed that one of their papers is read by every 4.5 or 4.6 people in Indianapolis. Now comes the Columbus Republican with an alleged better record than either of the other two. They claim that their paper is read by every four and a small fraction of people in Columbus. Hence they claim the world's record. The above is far above the average and the cases are all unusual. But it can be shown that the Daily Republican has a better showing than the Memphis paper had and almost as good as the News and the Columbus Republican.

Yesterday—or any day recently may be taken as an example—the Daily Republican went into 1625 homes in Rush county. Eight hundred and forty-five of that number were delivered to residents in Rushville. Taken for a basis the population of Rushville at the last census and adding two hundred, granting the increase is that much, by a little figuring it can be gleaned that the Daily Republican is read by every five and a slight fraction of people in the city of Rushville, which does not include any of the small suburbs near the city, but just those delivered in the city limits. The population was taken as forty-seven hundred and divided by 845 will give the above result.

The Daily Republican is justly proud of its subscription list and has every reason to be. It has a greater home circulation than the Memphis paper, which started the figuring and, which has lost in the race, by claiming the record. The Republican is almost the equal of the News and the Columbus Republican, both of which are very unusual cases. The Republican handles more local news than any paper in the sixth district and feels that it has warranted its present circulation.

Taking as a basis, the old estimate, which is used by directory compilers in estimating the population of a city—five people to every family—the Daily Republican goes into practically every home in Rushville. This means something to advertisers. It means that one Republican is delivered six days out of every week to almost every home in Rushville. It means that the advertisement of every merchant who advertises in the Daily Republican, goes into nearly every home in the city every day. To sum it all up it means that advertisements in the Daily Republican brings results.

ONLY WOMAN EXHIBITOR.

Mrs. V. C. Meredith of Cambridge City, who is an expert breeder, has an exhibit at the International Horse and Live Stock Show at Chicago. There are several other exhibitors from the Sixth district, the affair being open to raisers of fine sheep, cattle and horses. Mrs. Meredith is the only woman exhibitor.

MARY GARDEN

Actress Whose Offensive Act Was Cut Out by the Chicago Police.

"SALOME" TOO MUCH FOR THE WINDY CITY

Chicago Tells Mary Garden Where to Head In.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Following official criticism from the Chicago police department, through Chief of Police Steward, the production of "Salome," in which Mary Garden had twice appeared here, was withdrawn from the grand opera program. The chief of police informed the management that "offensive" features, particularly the "head" scene, should be toned down. Miss Garden strenuously objected to eliminating any of her lines or poses, and accordingly the production was withdrawn.

Chief Steward attended the first performance. Asked for his impressions, Colonel Steward said: "It was disgusting. Miss Garden wallowed around like a cat in a bed of catnip. There was no art in her dance that I could see. If the same show were produced on Halsted street the people would call it cheap, but over at the Auditorium they say it's art."

The New Maxwell
Model Q-11

PRICE, $900

Fully equipped as shown, also includes top. Supplied also as Surrey $950 or as Touring Car, $1,000

We Have Proved a Maxwell Model Q-11 Costs Less To Use Than a Horse and Buggy

HERE IS YOUR FIRST OPPORTUNITY to buy a 4-cylinder 22-horse power Automobile which has proved by actual test to be cheaper to use than a horse and buggy. Never before has such an announcement been made—that's why we ask you to read every word.

FIRST REAL COST TEST EVER MADE, proved the tremendous economy of owning a MAXWELL MODEL Q-11. Everything was done to make the test actual, fair and honest, and the result confirmed our claim that the MAXWELL AUTOMOBILE is cheaper to use than a horse and buggy.

WHAT WE DID—We conducted a public test—invited the contest board of the American Automobile Association to conduct it—we wanted this test made under disinterested control. Both Auto and Horse were driven for six days around New York and vicinity—each ran six hours per day—record was kept of every item of expense—the needs of each vehicle were bought at roadside stores. IT WAS A FAIR AND HONEST TEST.

WHY WE DID IT—We knew that thousands of people buy horses each year, believing them to be the cheapest form of transportation. Thousands of farmers, merchants and professional men wrote to us last year, saying that they would gladly purchase an automobile if they knew they could maintain it as economically as a horse. We knew a MAXWELL MODEL Q-11 in all its present state of perfection could do three times the work at half the cost and one-fourth the trouble. That's why we desired to make a public test to prove it—AND WE DID PROVE IT.

COMPARE THESE FIGURES—The Maxwell traveled in six days 475 miles, at a cost per mile per person of one and eight-tenths cents. The Horse and Buggy covered 197 miles, at a cost of two and one-half cents per mile per person. The Maxwell averaged 76 miles per day, the horse but 33 miles. DOES THIS PROVE TO YOU WHAT YOU WANT TO KNOW? We think it does.

YOU CAN BUY THIS NEW MODEL NOW—Will you buy a 1910 car of other makes when you can get the latest 1911 Maxwell now—will you buy a car whose low cost of up-keep is untried or whose claim for economy lies only in the mouth of some glib salesman? We ask you to buy a MAXWELL because its economy has been proved in public test—because it is cheaper to use than a horse.

WHAT OWNING A MAXWELL MEANS, for the doctor, the lawyer or merchant. It means quick, reliable and the cheapest transportation for one or more persons—it means more calls per day—less expense. For the farmer, owning a Maxwell means happier and better conditions, easier shopping for the wife, quicker errands about the farm and a closer touch with his entire state. A Maxwell will increase your earning power, save your time, extend your field of action. It is always ready—costs less to maintain than a horse and buggy, and WHEN NOT IN USE EXPENSE STOPS.

WHY, YOU ASK YOURSELF, cannot other cars equal this Maxwell record? We will explain. Here is a car costing $900 to $1000, fully equipped, that contains features found on the most expensive automobiles—cars costing $4,000 and upward. For example, you get in this Maxwell the Unit Construction and Three Point Suspension, just as you do in the Metabloc, a high priced foreign car. On the Maxwell you find the Thermo-Syphon Cooling System, just as you do on the Renault, a $7,000 French car. Look further and you will find the Metal Multiple Disk Clutch, and if you want proof that it is best, we cite that the Lozier, a $6,000 car uses the same.

AND SO IT GOES—Every Maxwell feature is found on some high priced car, yet no car except the MAXWELL contains all. Let us go further into details. You will be astonished to learn that Maxwell bodies are made of metal that can not crack, warp or blister, like cheap wooden bodies do. The car is built entirely in our own factories, each piece of material is inspected and tested. As for workmanship, judge that for yourself when you see the car. It is this careful, rigid workmanship, coupled with the splendid Maxwell design, that enables us to say: "THIS IS THE FIRST OPPORTUNITY YOU HAVE HAD TO BUY A FOUR-CYLINDER CAR THAT HAS PROVED TO COST LESS TO USE THAN A HORSE."

WE HEAR A LOT JUST NOW about low prices for next year. People are saying now, as they have for the last five years, "Cars will come down, then I will buy."

LET'S FIGURE IT OUT—We have been building Maxwell cars for eight years. We ought to know the automobile business. Our factory at New Castle, Indiana, (one of our four plants), is one of the largest plants in the world. We say to you frankly, it is not possible to buy a car as good as the MAXWELL MODEL Q-11 for less money. To make a good car, you must put the "STUFF IN IT." It must be an honest car. Gold dollars are not sold for fifty cents, neither can you buy the equal of this car for LESS MONEY THAN THE PRICE WE ASK.

WE INVITE YOU AND YOUR FAMILY to try this new car, to subject it to every test. Prove its power, its speed and absolute reliability for yourself. For the next few days we have arranged to have a man from the factory here. He will be at your service any time you say. Won't you give us this opportunity to prove to you what we have said? There are no strings attached to this offer, no obligation whatever. Just address your letter "The Maxwell Man," care of C. M. Norris, at Poe's Jewelry Store, Rushville, Indiana.

COME NOW—Bring your family, too. Let's all meet and make it an "Automobile Day." Let us tell you about this test—let us explain the car, let us show you its simplicity—better still, we will take you out. So come. If you just can't come, send for our catalogue and other interesting literature. Of course it's free. Come if you can.

Indianapolis, Nov. 30.—A good roads meeting will be held in every county in Indiana next Saturday if the plans of the Indiana Good Roads association hold. Letters have been sent to a number of citizens in each county appointing them delegates to the American good roads congress in this city, Dec. 6-9, and asking them to interest others in organizing a local good roads association in their county seat next Saturday.

The suggestion is that a general meeting be called to which all citizens in the county who are interested in obtaining better roads for Indiana shall be invited and that short addresses shall be made by those present. The Indiana Good Roads association officers will furnish information and data if application is made to the secretary, Will J. Dobyns, in the Board of Trade building, Indianapolis.

At these various county meetings organizations are to be perfected with the usual officers, and all delegates elected to the American good roads congress in Indianapolis will receive credentials from the state headquarters. The real purpose of this organization, however, is to help crystallize sentiment in the various communities in favor of good roads legislation by the general assembly. The county organizations will be affiliated with the state association, and the officers of the local branches will be kept fully informed of the progress of the campaign.

A LONG PROGRAM OF LEGISLATION

The President Not Deterred By Counsel of Advisers.

TAFT'S FORTHCOMING MESSAGE

Despite Advice From Experienced Members of Congress Who Predict Coming Session Will Not Go Beyond Supply Bills, the President Will Urge Enactment of Measures Which Failed at Last Session.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Those who thought that President Taft is going to turn a cold shoulder to Uncle Joe Cannon in the coming session of congress are to be disappointed. The president may take the insurgents into the White House councils on an equal footing with the regulars, but it is apparent that he does not intend to slight the latter, including Speaker Cannon.

The president had the speaker and James R. Mann of Illinois, one of Mr. Cannon's lieutenants in the house, at luncheon at the White House. It is understood that the president discussed his legislative program with them and asked for their opinion. Speaker Cannon already has said in public that he did not believe much legislation would be enacted in the coming session beyond the regular supply bills. He undoubtedly gave the president the same opinion and that is the practical advice that Mr. Taft has got from most of the other experienced members of the house and the senate.

It is understood, however, that this advice will not deter the president in his decision to recommend a fairly long program of legislation in his forthcoming message. He will lay before congress recommendations to enact about all of the legislation in his program which failed at the last session. This will include legislation providing for the leasing of coal, oil, phosphate and mineral lands, ship subsidy, a working man's compensation act, probably the reorganization of the government of Alaska, anti-injunction legislation, the establishment of a bureau of public health, a law providing for the inspection of locomotive boilers, and legislation establishing an Appalachian forest reserve.

In the message the president will renew his recommendations that the Panama canal be fortified, and will make other recommendations looking toward the government and operation of the canal. Strong opposition has already developed to the fortification of the canal, and it is believed that Mr. Taft will center the administration's influence on this legislation, especially that providing for fortifications. The message will also contain recommendations in regard to the enlargement of the postal savings bank system. Only a small appropriation was made for the establishment of this system in the last session of congress, and the administration will have to have this supplemented if any great progress is to be made in opening these depositories.

The president also will ask for a further appropriation for the tariff board. It is understood now that any discussion of the tariff that the president may care to make will be contained in a special message to congress. The tariff board is now prepared to report at present on the wool schedule, and Mr. Taft is not likely to make any tariff recommendations until he has data from that board.

PLEADED GUILTY

August Ropke, Defaulting Louisville Banker, Sentenced to Pen.

Louisville, Nov. 30.—August Ropke entered a plea of guilty to five counts of the indictment charging him with embezzlement of the funds of the Fidelity Trust company. The total of his defalcation was $1,490,000. The amount was reduced by recoveries to $1,190,000. Ropke was sentenced to from ten to eighteen years in the penitentiary, this penalty covering all his offenses. Ropke was secretary of the company's banking department.

Ropke's speculations in Wall street, Chicago and other cities with the Fidelity's money were of the wildest and most spectacular character.

Madero Reported Captive.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 30.—Reports are in circulation here that the Mexican government kidnapped Francisco Madero after he left San Antonio, and now has him in prison in Mexico City, but it is believed that such reports were circulated for the purpose of working on the credulity of the ignorant Mexicans, and in a measure stimulating their interest in the revolt.

Little Girl's Singular Plight.

Carmi, Ill., Nov. 30.—Daisy Eloise Rudolph, aged five, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Rudolph, had a narrow escape from death. The strong fumes were fast overcoming the child when a doctor arrived. She was chloroformed and the meddlesome ball removed.

Newark Death List Growing.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 30.—Miss Anna Haag, who was injured in the factory fire in Newark last Saturday, is dead in the city hospital. The death list is now twenty-four. Two more of the injured are not expected to recover.

Better Spare the Trees

The Republican has from time to time befriended the shade trees of Columbus, says the Columbus Republican. The protests frequently raised against the indiscriminate practice of butchering the trees have availed but little protecting them from the onslaughts of ill-advised and ignorant tree butchers.

The season is again here when the professional tree pruner (called so by courtesy only) is abroad in the land, and a word of caution is again vouchsafed in the interest of the defenseless trees that when left to grow as the Creator intended, do so much to beautify and add so much to the comfort of mankind.

Everybody knows there is a local ordinance on the tree trimming question, its enforcement would practically obliterate very many of the trees that are left by the independent tree butchers.

What the city of Columbus needs is a comprehensive tree ordinance, one modeled after that of some city where the protection of shade trees has been in intelligent hands—tree intelligence above all else. In connection with such an ordinance there should be a city forester whose duty it would be to see that the provisions of the ordinance regulating the planting and trimming of shade trees be enforced. Now that the city has embarked in the park business the necessity for such an ordinance and for such an officer to enforce its provisions is the more imperative.

A proper tree ordinance should provide that no person, whether he be the owner of the property, a renter, a telephone, telegraph or electric lineman, or any one else, may plant or trim any shade tree along the streets or any public ground or within any public park within the corporate limits of the city, without first obtaining the consent of the forester, an officer to be selected exclusively under the provision of the ordinance, with reference to his qualifications and technical knowledge of tree culture and kindred subjects. A penalty for violation of the provisions of the ordinance should also be a feature.

The purpose of such an ordinance should be to stop the wholesale butchery of our shade trees which has been carried on for some time and also to regulate the planting of trees in the future, with reference to the selection of species, indiscriminate selection of undesirable species.

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness. Profit by Rushville People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of "kidney" disorders. It's an error to neglect these. The attacks may pass off for a time but return with greater intensity. being as objectionable as indiscriminate and ignorant pruning. People should at once disabuse their minds of the idea that a tree must be cut back heavily every year or two in order that it may develop a proper top. In the first place, let us plant under proper directions, trees that are suitable for the location startle them right then let them grow as nature intended them to grow.

A quotation from King Henry VIII is particularly in point, in view of the present conditions and care of our shade trees:

DISMISS CASE TO NATURALIZE

Since Election is Past Nobody Cares Whether or Not Knightstown Foreigners Vote.

BROUGHT IN ITALIAN'S NAME

The proceedings brought several days before election to naturalize about forty Italian laborers from Knightstown so that they could vote, were dismissed in the Henry circuit court. The hearing was to have been held last week, but nobody appeared and nobody, seemingly, cares now whether they are put in a condition to vote or not.

The proceedings were brought in the name of one of the Italians and was almost unpronounceable. The decision in the one case would have affected all. The county clerk had no naturalization blanks at the time, but now has a large quantity and is ready to naturalize all that come. After the case was postponed it was expected that it would be carried farther.

According to the Indianapolis papers, President Taft has a tough time of it indeed. They report that even the "regular" Republicans are ferocious against the administration. With reference to this peculiar situation, the Muncie Press says:

"The Indianapolis Star says that the regular Republicans in the senate are undecided whether to be for or ferocious against the administration. The Star means that the correspondents are uncertain in which attitude to put them. To the new school of Washington correspondence the position of a political faction that is being pounded is determined by the newspaper itself and the correspondent must produce the "dope" accordingly entirely without regard to what the facts may be. Whenever a correspondent gets closely cornered he compels a surrender and change of front by the statesmen under fire. The manufacture of public sentiment as it is carried on today would make the late lamented Ananias turn over in his grave."

According to the Richmond Item, the people of that hapless city are between the "devil and the deep sea." The Item says:

"The gospel meetings conducted by the Rev. Mr. Mahy have been seeking to lead men heavenward, while the plays going on in one of our theaters at the same time, 'The Devil,' 'The Girl From Rector's' 'The Blue Mouse,' 'The Girl in the Taxi,' etc., etc. have been giving them a good shove in the other direction. What will be the net resultant of these two opposing forces?"

TO ENTERTAIN MALE MEMBERS

Ladies of Industrial Society of Manilla M. E. Church Will be Hostesses Thursday Night.

BIG SOCIETY EVENT OF YEAR

Spelling Match, in Which Well Known

Men Will Participate, Will be Prominent Feature.

The lady members of the Ladies Industrial Society of the Manilla M. E. church will entertain the gentlemen members of the society at the Trees opera house in that place on Thursday evening, says the Shelbyville Democrat. More than one hundred invitations have been issued by the committee in charge. It is expected that practically all of those who have been invited will respond in person. This is one of the largest society events occurring throughout the year in Manilla. It is an annual affair and is always given shortly after or before the Thanksgiving season.

One of the features of the event will be the serving of a fine five-course dinner. One distinct feature about the meetings of the society is that this is the only meeting in the year that the gentlemen members attend. At this meeting the male members pay their membership dues for the ensuing year. The amount secured in this manner is spent in a judicious manner by the officers of the society. Expenses incurred in the church are paid out of this fund and a portion of the money is expended for missionary work. At the entertainment last year a three-act playlet was given by the younger members of the society. This year the program has been changed and an old-time brand of amusement will be provided.

An old-fashioned spelling match will be one of the main features of the entertainment program. Realizing that such men as Thomas K. Mull, George W. Gross, Dr. W. E. Barnum, Dr. Charles Zike, H. C. Gaddy, Fred Gross and Leonidas H. Mull were experts in the art, the program committee conceived the idea of staging an orthographic tug of war as a part of the evening's entertainment. Some of the above named gentlemen formerly wielded the red and birch in the school room and they have been spending the past week in preparation for the event Thursday night. Music will also play a conspicuous part in the entertainment for the evening. About two hundred persons will attend the affair.

AMUSEMENTS

There was necessity for two performances of the Passion Play at the Palace theater last night in order to accommodate the large crowds that desired to witness the picture. There will be two performances tonight at 7 and 9 o'clock.

It is very probable that a number of local theatergoers will take advantage of the opportunity to see Rose Stahl in "The Chorus Lady" at the Auditorium in Connersville tonight. Miss Stahl was in Connersville with the same show one year ago and pleased a large crowd, many of them Rushville people. "The Chorus Lady" is a simple little drama, deals with stage life in a very delightful manner.

The Vaudet will keep up its usual two-film offerings tonight with two strong productions. "Italy, Let us Die" is the title of a thrilling drama which will be shown. The other is one of the Thanhouser productions, "A Dainty Politician." It is a story of press and politics, of honesty and graft, of good men and bad men, that will hit home with the patrons of the Vaudet who believe in the triumph of truth. The reporter hero and the dainty politician who assisted him are the principal characters around which the plot revolves. It is a corking presentation of a current condition with a lively and truly logical love affair to top it off. A new illustrated song is on the program.

On December 1, 2 and 3, with a matinee on the 3d, "Bright Eyes" will be the attraction at English's opera house, Indianapolis. It is a musical play in three acts, offered by Jos. M. Gaites, book by Charles Dickens, lyrics by Otto A. Hanerbach and music by Karl Hoschna. It is a three-act version of Charles Dickens' sketch, "Mistakes Will Happen," and is full of funny situations, and is called the companion-piece to the "Three Twins." The story is that of a jovial actor, out of a job and looking for a backer for a play he has written and a young actress, to whom he is secretly married. The comedy is based on mistaken identity and is faithfully carried out until the end. A few of the songs are "Fan, Fan, Fan," "Mrs. Casey," "The Good Old Days of Yore," "For You Bright Eyes," which prevails through the entire piece, "Cheer up Honey" and many others.

Two Biograph pictures at the Star Grand tonight, both comedies. The first is entitled "The Troublesome Baby." Mr. Martin is called to High Beach to close a business deal. His wife can not accompany him as her dressmaker is tardy. However, the dress arrives later, and she follows. By a tantalizing circumstance he comes into possession of an infant, which caused threatening clouds to gather over the Martin family, which are dissipated by the infant falling into the hands of its rightful custodian and explanations given. The second picture is entitled "Love in Quarantine." Harold and Edith, sweethearts, quarrel, and Harold gets back the ring and the mitt. He, however, is persistent, and follows Edith into the house expostulating. Once inside, they are doomed to stay, for the doctor has just quarantined the premises, owing to the maid suffering from a contagious disease. The peevish lovers have no chance of avoiding one another, and so thrown together constantly, can't help making up, when mother acts as the go-between. Earl Robertson will sing "Little Puff of Smoke Good Night."

The body of Reuben Parker, who was found dead in the woods near Greensburg, was brought to this city for burial this morning. He was formerly a resident of this city and his body will be placed beside that of his wife's in East Hill cemetery. The body was found by some hunters, east of Greensburg and life had been extinct for several hours. The coroner held that death was due to natural causes. He was seventy-two years old.

RAISE MONEY TO SUPPORT LIBRARY

Local D. A. R. Complete Subscription Work and Petition For Appointment of Library Board.

$1100 HAS BEEN SUBSCRIBED

The local chapter of D. A. R. has raised by popular subscription the sum of eleven hundred dollars to sustain a public library. The money subscribed represents money equal to the amount that would be derived from a tax levy of two-tenths of a mill on each dollar of taxable property assessed for taxation in the city, the sum to be payable in a period covering two years or in the eight quarterly installments.

A petition has been filed with the clerk of the circuit court and presented to Judge Blair, who will be asked to appoint three members of the library board. The city council and the school board will be asked to appoint two members each, the seven members to comprise a library board. After the appointments are made, all matters pertaining to the library will be turned over to the board which will have entire management.

In view of the style in the general run of French plays, to which the young people can not be taken, a group of Belgian women, headed by Mile. Marguerite Van de Wiele, an author of renown, are organizing a theater for girls in Brussels, to be called Le Theater de L'Adolescence.

CHAPTER XV.

NAT didn't go to the Lockwood lawn fete and did excuse himself on the plea of being unable to leave the store. I'm afraid the young man had a faint, fond hope that Josie would be offended, but his excuse was accepted without remonstrance.

But the party came off without fail and that on a wonderful still, moonlit night, and everybody voted it a splendid success. The Citizen in its next issue recorded the event to the extent of a column and a half of reading matter, called it a social function and described the gowns of the leading ladies of society present in bewildering phrases. I read the proofs with an admiration strongly tinged with awe and found it lacking in one particular only—no mention was made of Roland Barnett's first open faced suit.

Roland had ordered it from a clothing house in Chicago, and it arrived just in-time. Having heard all about it from Roland's own lips (they dilated upon the matter to Watty, the tailor, just beneath my window), I sort of hung round downtown Saturday evening in the hope of catching a glimpse of it and was not disappointed. I was loitering in Graham's when Roland sauntered nonchalantly in at about a quarter to 8 and called for a pack of "Sweets." Sam served him, and Duncan, happily for him disengaged at the moment, after one look at Roland retired precipitately behind the prescription counter—overcome, I judged from Roland's triumphant smirk, by deepest chagrin. Well, thought I, might he have been; he could never, by whatever wildest endeavor, have approximated Roland's splendor.

The coat was bobtailed (at least so Watty described it within my hearing) and curiously double breasted, caught together at the waist with a single button, thus revealing a shining expanse of very stiff shirt bosom, which creaked for some reason. With this Roland wore a ribbed white silk waistcoat, very brilliant low cut patent leather shoes and white silk socks. The trousers were strikingly cut as to each leg after the physical configuration of the domestic pear, and the effect of the whole was measurably enhanced by an opera hat, one of those tall and striking contraptions that you can shut up by pressing gently but firmly upon the human midriff and looking unconscious, but which is apt to open with a resounding report if you're not careful. I am glad to be able to report that Roland failed to commit the solecism of wearing a red string tie. His tie was a sober black firmly knotted at the factory.

Duncan fell into a routine without the least evidence of discontent. He was early to rise and early to work and rarely left the store save at meal hours and closing up time. He attended church with admirable regularity, both morning and evening services, on Sunday, the midweek prayer meeting and Friday evening choir practice, for in the course of time he had been won over to join the choir and modestly discovered to our edification a baritone voice wholly untrained, but not unpleasant. Josie Lockwood sang contralto and Bess Gabriel what we were informed was soprano—only Radville called it a tre-

LOVELY COMPLEXION

A Clear Skin and Bright Eyes Are Easy to Get.

All the beauty creams in creation won't improve your complexion if your stomach is out of order.

Belching of gas and heartburn mean bad food in the stomach. Bad food means bad blood and bad blood means a bad complexion.

Try MI-O-NA stomach tablets for stomach misery, biliousness, dizziness and indigestion. They relieve in a few minutes; they make rich, red blood. They are guaranteed by Johnson's Drug Store to cure or money back.

Read what a Kansas Woman says: "I had been doctoring a year for stomach trouble and found nothing that did as much good as MI-O-NA. I only have the second box and they have relieved all pain in my stomach. For stomach trouble or indigestion MI-O-NA can't be beaten. MI-O-NA has done a world of good for me when doctors failed."—Mrs. Cordelia B. Mann, 207 E. 11th St., Junction City, Kans.

ble. Tracey Tanner pumped the organ and puffed audibly in the pauses, a singular testimony to his devotion to Angie Tutbill, who "just sang" with the others chiefly because she was Josie's nearest friend.

Nat had settled down to a pretty steady correspondence with Kellogg, chiefly on business matters. Kellogg was investigating old Sam's burner and seemed quite impressed with its possibilities. He had quarreled with Roland's friend Burnham on Duncan's representations and ordered him out of the offices of L. J. Bartlett & Co., it seemed. Later he opened up negotiations with a corporation known as the Modern Gas company, I believe, a competitor of Consolidated Petroleum, and in due course representatives of both concerns came to Radville, examined the burner and retired, noncommittal. Then Bartlett sent a requisition for a model and supplied the funds for making it, thus demonstrating his confidence.

As for old Sam, he had risen to the dignity of a frock coat and felt himself an aristocrat for the first time in his life.

I don't remember just how soon it was, but it was shortly after the formation of the firm of Graham & Duncan that the young man received his first invitation to dinner at the Lockwoods'. He accepted, of course, whether he wanted to or not, for there could be no excuse for his refusing a Sunday bid, and the Lockwoods made quite an event of it. The Soules were invited because they were Araminta Lockwood's brother and sister-in-law, and the Godfreys came over from Westerville to grace the board as representatives of the Lockwood strain.

At the conclusion of the meal, which endured throughout two interminable hours, the elder men folk withdrew to the garden and the lawn. Nat was left to Josie, who conducted him to the side porch, out of sight of everybody, and planted herself in a baggy ham mock there. She was gay, even brilliant within her limitations, arch, naive, coquettish, shy, petulant, by turns, animated by a sense of conquest. She supplied the major part of the conversation, chatting volubly on the thousand subjects she didn't understand, the dozen she did. In the most ingenuous manner imaginable she laid herself open to advances, not once, but a score of times, and when he failed to respond according to the code of Radville had the wit to mask her chagrin, did she feel any. Very probably she laid his lack of responsiveness at the door of his shyness (a quality he was wholly without) and liked him the better for it.

It was on this day that she extracted from him his promise to join the choir. He acceded through apathy alone.

"I don't care whether you can sing

"I WANT SOMEBODY TO WALK HOME WITH ME."

or not," she confessed, with a look. "But I do want somebody to walk home with me that I like."

"That's a nice way of putting it," Duncan considered without emphasis. "Roland Barnett's always walked home with me, but I think he's just tiresome."

"Why?" inquired the young man, with some interest.

She averted her head, plucking at the strands of the hammock. "Oh, you know," she said diffidently.

"Oh?" Nat was enlightened. "Then I'm sorry for Roland."

"Why?"

"I can't blame him, you know." He couldn't help this. The time, the place, the girl, inspired—indeed, incited—one to banality.

"Why?" she persisted.

"Oh, you know." He caught the intonation of her previous words precisely.

She had the grace to blush and hang her head, but he received a thrilling sidelong glance.

"Ah! Aren't you awful to talk that way, Mr. Duncan?"

"Yes," he admitted meekly.

"Then you will join the choir?"

"Oh, yes," he agreed listlessly.

"I'm so glad."

He thanked her, but avoided her eye. "We might as well begin tonight," she suggested presently, with diffident, downcast eyes.

"What—the choir?" He was startled.

"Oh, I couldn't without a rehearsal."

"No. I didn't mean that."

"No?"

"I mean about Roland." She was paying minute attention to the lace insertion of her skirt.

"About Roland?"

"Yes; I mean— You know what I mean, Mr. Duncan?"

"I assure you I do not, Miss Lockwood."

"About not walking home with him any more. I don't want to. I wish you'd commence tonight instead of choir practice night. I'd much rather walk home with you."

"After evening service, you mean?"

She nodded. "It'll be a great pleasure."

"Ah, I don't believe you mean that!"

"But indeed I do."

It was not until nearly 5 o'clock that he was given a chance to escape. He had even then to refuse inflexibly an invitation to stay to supper.

Minta Lockwood—an expansive woman, generously convex—almost smothered him with appreciation of his thanks. She held his hand in a large, moist palm and beamed upon him.

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

ATLEE POMERINE.

Active Candidate For Sen-

Columbus, O., Nov. 30.—Lieutenant Governor-elect Atlee Pomerine has returned to the capitol and opened his senatorial headquarters.

OLD MAINE SENATOR AND HIS FORECAST

Veteran Leader Looks For Little Action In Congress.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Eugene Hale, the veteran Republican from Maine, a prominent leader of the senate, who is soon to retire from public life, has given his opinion on the legislative outlook to the coming session, the probable results of the recent Democratic victory and the prospects for the Republican party. It is seldom that Senator Hale talks for publication, and when he does his statements always attract wide attention.

The senator predicts that there will be no important legislation outside of the regular supply bills and possibly an ocean mail subsidy bill, and also that there will be no extra session.
He foresees a reconciliation between the Republican regulars and insurgents and trouble ahead for the Democrats. As he reads the future, President Taft will grow steadily in the confidence of the people and the destinies of the country will soon be restored to the control of the Republican party.

"Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth," said Senator Hale, "and the defeat of 1910 will do the party good. It must submit to its temporary reverses and defeats and must bear up as well as it may even under such calamities as the repulse of Roosevelt and the overthrow of Beveridge."

Senator Hale's statement can be taken as a pretty good indication of the sorrow of some members of the senate over Roosevelt's rejection and the loss of Beveridge.

"Do you expect that an extra session of the next congress will be called in the spring?" the senator was asked.
"I certainly do not," was the emphatic reply. "Mr. Champ Clark of the house, who seems to have a level head, tells the whole story about this when he says that nobody expects or wants such a session except the boarding house keepers, the hotel managers, the tradesmen and the newspapers of the District, who would be glad to see congress in continuous session throughout the entire year. When the time comes I look to see all talk of this absolutely disappear."

"Do you look for a combination of the so-called insurgent force with the Democratic party, either now or hereafter?" Mr. Hale was asked.

"I certainly do not, but in this I can only give my own forecast, as I have not talked with any leaders of either side on the subject."

ILLINOIS MINERS IN AN INSURGENT STATE

They Repudiate Authority of National Executive.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 30.—Officers of the Illinois branch of the United Mine Workers of America have issued a statement in which they accuse National President Lewis of misconstru-ing the contract between the Illinois miners and operators for the benefit of the operators. Locals throughout the state are told to pay no attention to the national president's construction of the agreement, and his authority in the state is practically repudiated.

The statement, which is signed by State President J. L. Walker, Vice President Groce Lawrence, and Secretary Duncan McDonald, does not specify in what particulars the national president's construction of the Illinois agreement counts against it, but it is the general charge that Lewis is endeavoring to embarrass the Illinois miners and rob them of the fruits of victory gained in the strike.

"If President Lewis had let us alone," the statement concludes, "if he had not come to the assistance of the Illinois operators, we should have won our strike six weeks earlier than we did, and we should have been able to secure our members many additional concessions in our local settlements."

Too Cold For the Crowd.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 30.—The advertised three-days' meet of the international aviators here came to an end after three hours, before a large crowd. Instead of taking away several thousand dollars the company met a loss of about $10,000. Only one flight of any importance was made.
None of the advertised big exploits were undertaken. More than half the people left before flying commenced on account of cold weather.

Prize Fighting Gets Knockout.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—Prize fighting hereabouts received a knockout blow when the district attorney issued a notice that no more prize fights would be allowed. The grand jury will back up the district attorney and will indict not only fighters and promoters and seconds, but any of the spectators who can be secured.

THE GOVERNORS GET TOGETHER

Notable Meeting In the Capitol of Kentucky.

GOVERNOR WILLSON CHAIRMAN

Opening Their Meeting in the State Capitol, the Party of Visiting Executives Was Entertained at Night at a Reception in the Governor's Mansion—The Business Conference
Being Conducted at Louisville.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 30.—Party affiliations and political struggles were forgotten when the executives of twenty-four states met here on the opening day of the governor's conference.

The visitors assembled in the state reception room at the capitol to exchange greetings and be in readiness when the governor's salute was fired by cannon from the state arsenal hill
as the signal for the formal opening of the conference in the hall of representatives, and the address of welcome upon the part of Kentucky, delivered by Governor Willson, who was declared by the conference, on motion of Governor Fort, permanent chairman.

Last night the old mansion which has long been the home of the governors of Kentucky was a blaze of lights and the interior was artistically decorated in chrysanthemums and carnations. Twenty-four governors and their wives, several governors-elect and ex-governors were on hand at the reception given by Governor and Mrs.
Willson in honor of the visitors. In the receiving line were the visiting executives, Governor and Mrs. Willson.
The reception eclipsed all social events of Frankfort. The list of invited guests for the evening included all of the visiting governors and their wives and families, besides a large number of Frankfort people.

The following were the executives present: Sloan and wife of Arizona,
Weeks and wife of Connecticut,
Brown, wife and daughter of Georgia,
Plaisted, wife and daughter of Maine,
Draper, wife and daughter of Massachusetts, Noel and wife of Mississippi, Fort and wife of New Jersey, Kitchen and wife of South Carolina, Ansel and wife of North Carolina, Pothier and wife of Rhode Island, Mann and wife of Virginia, Vessey and wife of South Dakota, O'Neill and wife of Alabama, Harmon and wife of Ohio, Hadley and wife of Missouri, Deneen and wife of Illinois, Norris and wife of Montana, McGovern of Wisconsin, Sprye of Utah, Shafroth and wife of Colorado, Marshall and wife of Indiana; Governor-elect Cruce of Oklahoma and Governor-elect Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. In addition to these there are present former Governor Simon Bolivar Buckner and former Governor Mc-Creary of Kentucky.

The party proceeded this morning to Louisville, where the executives will settle down to do business, and the questions of conservation, the election of United States senators by popular vote, and other questions of national interest will be taken up and discussed.

THE MOORE TRIAL

Theatrical Manager Faces Murder
Charge at Vincennes.

Vincennes, Ind., Nov. 30.—A jury made up of farmers was secured in the Knox circuit court for service in the trial of Menlo E. Moore, charged with having shot and killed Charles Edward Gibson, a wealthy oil operator, on the Union station platform here
Oct. 3. Moore is a theatrical manager, interested in houses in Mitchell, Bedford, Princeton, Washington, Vincennes and Olney, Ill.

Alleged attention to his wife on the part of Gibson is said to have been the cause of the shooting. Moore is represented by eight lawyers. Prosecutor Culbertson is being assisted by two.

Consumers Getting the Benefit.

New York, Nov. 30.—An inquiry made in New York and in several centers of population west and south, seems to indicate that in the majority of the places where the inquiries were made the retail butchers have been made to feel the influence of the general cut in the wholesale price of meat, and that consumers are now getting some of their meat, at least, at a considerable reduction from the price of a month ago.

Further Hearings in Lorimer Case.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Senator Burrows, chairman of the sub-committee of privileges and elections, is arranging to take further testimony in the investigation of the charges against Senator William Lorimer, involving the latter's election to the senate. The sub-committee will hold a few hearings in Washington early in the session and submit a report possibly before the holidays.

Fair Association Officers.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Members of the American Association of Fairs and Expositions elected the following officers for the year 1911: President, Charles E. Cameron, Alta, Ia.; vice president,
R. E. Pearson, Albany, N. Y.; secre-
